

New Age Kurling – we are going to run taster sessions for this during June at three venues throughout the county. New Age Kurling is an adapted form of curling that can be played on any indoor flat surface rather than on ice. It can be played by both able-bodied and disabled people of all ages. Booking form with your secretary.

Poetry & prose Competition – don't forget entries for this are to be in by 6 June 2014. Details went out in January newsletter. Poetry & prose evening – St Edward's Church Hall, Knighton @ 7.30pm. Come along and read your favourite poem or reading on the theme of 'Feelings'. Form with your secretary. The winner of the Short Story competition will be announced.

WIA – if you find yourself short of a speaker in the next few months Dawn Gill, who is training to be a WIA, is willing to come out to you and speak about her training and would appreciate the chance to visit WI's. Dawn's number - 01597 840580 or email: colingill3096@hotmail.com

Centenary Baton – as Rebe has put in her message the baton is on its travels and we will be organising events in order for members be part of this big occasion. We will have events during 6-11 August around the County, and on the 12th of August Presidents of the WI's will be invited to the handing over of the baton to Powys Brecknock. More details to follow.

MOODLE – have you visited the revamped craft pages on this. The moodle has many training resources and is full of information for presidents, secretaries and treasurers. If you are not already registered on the moodle just ask either your MCS rep or myself (Cheryl) to register you as an online learner, you will then receive an email with your password etc. It really is worth registering.

NFWI Raffle – WI's will have received their quota of raffle tickets from NFWI – please try and sell as many as you can, 60% of sales is returned to the Federation which contributes greatly towards the running costs of the Federation – thank you.

Change to secretary's info – Please note that Bryngwyn WI meet on 1st Tuesday of month and not 1st Monday as on new list.

Dolau WI are sad to report the passing of one of their past members – Betty Lewis. Our thoughts go out to Dolau members and Betty's family and friends at this sad time.
